

SCHEDULE 1

ENTRY FORM

The Central West NSW Rural Ambassador Award is designed to recognise young people aged 20 to 29 across Australia and New Zealand and their contribution to:

- rural communities
- the agricultural sector; and
- the agricultural show movement.

The program aims to attract and retain young people across our communities by enhancing and enriching their involvement in the district. The Award presents a unique opportunity for young people across the region to build and develop the skills needed of our future leaders, volunteers and community members.

Integrated in the award is a professional development series for winners of Local Show competitions, including workshops, networking events and individual mentoring based on the participants' skills, industry and/or interests.
